Blockchain – Its Impact on Your Business

Join us for an information packed presentation as Shane McRann Bigelow, CEO of Ownum, shares his knowledge on blockchain technology and how it will affect your business.

Shane has worked for 20+ years on all sides of the investment and entrepreneurial worlds. From working for a family office, to starting his own company, being part of the sale of a public company, structuring and selling financial instruments for another public company, building up a client base of entrepreneurs to whom he provided investment management advice, running part of AB Bernstein's business in the US, to being CEO of Ownum, a company focused on making government and business more efficient through blockchain, Shane has seen the investment, entrepreneurial, and executive worlds from all sides.

This is a great opportunity to introduce potential new members to the Entrepreneurs Association .
